

Language, Literacy and Communication skills

- Learning new letter sounds, digraphs and word patterns.
- Reading and understanding features of non-fiction books.
- Exploring rhymes and action songs.
- Writing simple descriptive sentences.
- Labelling, writing lists, menus.

R.E

- Caring for others
- Rules

Creative Development

- Junk modelling – creating 3D arctic animals.
- Papier mache Arctic small world scene.
- Making salt dough Arctic animals.
- Printing using a range of materials.
- Role play – igloo.
- Singing and experimenting with sound and instruments.
- Observational paintings.

Personal and Social Development

- Dressing and undressing for P.E, developing independence.
- Taking part in circle time.
- Expressing likes, dislikes, thoughts and feelings.
- Celebrating the Chinese New Year.
- Developing Social Skills.
- SEAL+ - Getting on and Falling Out.
- Continuing to build resilience.

Mathematical Development

- Exploring repeating patterns.
- Identifying names of 3D shapes and identifying properties.
- Comparing length, and describing size.
- Adding two small numbers to find a total.
- Using vocabulary relating to addition and subtraction.
- Addition and subtraction on a number line.

Knowledge and Understanding of the world

- Finding out about the Arctic, the climate and types of Arctic animals.
- Baking arctic animal biscuits.
- Using a range of computer programmes independently.
- Experimenting with mixing powder paints.
- Learning about the Chinese New Year.
- Food tasting linking with Chinese New Year.

Physical Development

- Travelling on feet in a variety of ways; giant strides, fairy strides, marching, skipping.
- Recognising repeated sounds and sound patterns and matching movements to music.
- Responding to a range of percussion, voice and taped music.
- Developing imagination in ways we move.
- Developing handwriting.